From the Pastor's Desk

■ The only 20th-century Pope to be declared a saint so far is Pius X (1835-1914). His given name was Giuseppe Sarto. He came from the humblest of backgrounds, being one of ten children of his father Giovanni, a janitor, and his mother Margherita, a dressmaker.

After ordination he was assigned to the small village of Tombolo, where he was respected and loved as a holy priest and as a man who was greatly generous to the poor. It was a reputation that was further solidified in his second posting, to the larger town of Solzano, where the poor came to his door day and night for food and wood, which he gave them even when it meant depriving himself of these necessities. To carry out these good works, he sold his own possessions and a number of the parish's, including its old horse and sorry carriage. His bishop told him, "You will not be satisfied until you have pawned the thurible" (the church's incense burner, used for its most solemn services). When the bishop assigned him to the diocesan seminary not long afterwards, his parishioners escorted him there, forming a kind of honor guard in conveyances that ranged from a fancy carriage to a humble cart drawn by a little donkey. As a tribute, some of them composed a special song that concluded: "He came in garments that were torn, He left without a shirt." Eighteen years later, after serving as Bishop of Mantua and as Cardinal Patriarch of Venice, he was elected Pope.

He once wrote this prayer, asking God for greater union with the Holy Spirit. It is a perfect accompaniment to today's feast of Pentecost.

O Holy Spirit of Light and Love, to you I consecrate my heart, mind, and will for time and eternity. May I ever be docile to your divine inspirations and to the teachings of the holy Catholic Church whose infallible guide you are.

May my heart be ever inflamed with the love of God and love of neighbor, may my will be ever in harmony with your divine Will. May my life faithfully imitate the life and virtues of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. To him, with the Father, and you, divine Spirit, be honor and glory forever.

■ Our parishioners Margot and Bob Parker have a photography show at the New Providence Memorial Library (377 Elkwood Ave., 07974) through May 29. It is entitled "The Art of Seeing: Photography by Margot Parker and Robert A. Parker." Library hours are: Monday-Thursday, 9:00 a.m.– 9:00 p.m.; Friday and Saturday, 9:00 a.m. – 5:30 p.m.; Sunday, 1:00 – 5:00 p.m. For further information, call 908-665-0311. If you have a chance to stop by this exhibit, you will see camera images that will delight you. Some photos from the Parkers' book Images (2009) can be viewed at Parishioners, thank you so much for your past contributions to our Pantry. It's through your continued generosity that we have been so successful. A recent inventory of our Pantry revealed that we have enough soup, pasta and fruit for the present time. If you are planning on making a contribution, please make sure the expiration date of the product is not outdated as we will be unable to use it. We presently are in short supply of rice, dry milk, peanut butter, jelly, and tomato sauce. Thank you for your anticipated cooperation.
